

Adrian D. Reid

July 21, 1993 - June 4, 2018

TRIBUTE

Adrian Dane Patrick "Niko" Reid was born on July 21, 1993 to Elenard T. Reid and Nicholle E. Morris, in Brooklyn New York.

Adrian's early childhood years were spent growing up on the beautiful Island of Jamaica. There he attended Mico Practising Primary and Wolmer's High School for Boys. He and his mother later migrated to South Portland, Maine in 2007, where Adrian finished his high school curriculum at the South Portland High School.

While at South Portland High, Adrian did very well in Track and Field and was a star athlete who was frequently featured in the daily paper. He was named South Portland's Spring Athlete of the year 2011 and ended his high school athletic tenure as a Class A State Champion in the boys 200m event.

Adrian went on to attend Florida Southern College and then transferred to the University of Tampa, where he graduated with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in 2017.

Those who knew him would remember him with a smile that would light up a room, always sharing a word of encouragement and always offering a shoulder to lean on. He was passionate about photography, cooking, gardening, fishing, travelling, being outdoors and living life to the fullest. His greatest joy and love was being with his dog, Princess Jaxzmine.

Adrian is survived by his father Dennis, mother Nicholle, grandmother Lezley, loving brothers and sisters, aunts, uncles, cousins and loving friends who are like family.

He will be forever in our hearts.

“ My deepest condolences to Reid family. Losing a loved one in death is never easy. Words cannot express the sadness that a loss of a loved one brings. I have found John 5:28,29 and Psalm 37:10,11 to be real comforting.

“ Dear Family

To the whole wonderful family who I got to know through Grandmother Leslie, my heart aches with you at this most difficult time.

The flow of life is mysterious. I pray, trust and believe that Adrian is in the flow of life, but in a different form.

His time was too brief and that makes no sense. But I know he would want the family to be as strong as possible. Hold each other close for comfort and strength.

And perhaps someday there will be a grand reunion. I hope and pray so.

Yours in Grief,

Jesse

“ Nicole My sincere condolence to you and family. I can only imagine your pain but I do pray that God will comfort you. I grieve with you but I know Adrian has touched many lives for the better and he knew how much you loved him. So take comfort in that and know too you are not alone. My thoughts and prayers are with you and family as you go through this time.

“ My baby cousin, it's hard knowing that you're not around. These past days I've been thinking about the fun we had as children, how hard you laughed when we played, you'd always drool and wipe it off and get back to playing, that time you made french toast at 6 which I still make exactly how you showed me, and our wild adventures exploring the internet when you had dial up. Remember when you started high school and I told you to become a Dr? Your passing has affected me so much, I simply cannot begin to understand what aunty is feeling right now, no parent should have to bury their child. The guilt I feel for allowing our relationship to grow distant is immense and now there's no way to make amends. Now all I can say is should've, could've, and would've.

“ It was shortly after 9 am on the 5th of June, when I opened my watt app message and realized I had an unread message for Nicholle. That was the start of the worst day of my entire life. I called her immediately and told her "you've got to be kidding me, it is not all fools day". She says "no" and we lost it. How could we lose someone so dear, so young, so responsible, so loving & kind, so precious so early. He was such a warm soul all the attributes to make any mother proud, and he was loved by all of us his extended family. He was such a wonderful Human being. I know when he is home, Nicholle would never go hungry.

Then it dawned on me "what will Nicholle do now? Adrie was HER LIFE. She made every decision in her life, forgoing all her want for Adrie's development. Nicholle you are always the strong one who counsel all of us from time to time, but I cannot in good sense tell you to be strong knowing the sacrifices you have and still making and that your heart has been ripped apart. Please know and remember we are here for you always.

I question God on whyyy he took Adrie so young. I love you Nicholle and I am so sorry that I cannot be there with you today in person, but you know my thoughts and prayers are with you and the family. I know Adrie is resting in peace and I am consoled in knowing that one day we see him again.

Walk good Adrie. May your Soul Rest in Peace.

“ Nicholle, I admire your strength. Even in your darkest moment you manage to be an inspiration. God knew that Adrian's time on this earth would be short, which is why He gave him to you. He knew that He could trust you the most to take the best care of him. Now Master Adrian has gone home to be with the Lord, but he has left you so many wonderful memories to carry on. I pray your continued strength, and your family as well. The days ahead will be tough, but lean on the Lord and He will see you through.
