

Consuelo Carril

February 27, 1925 - August 12, 2015

Dear Mommy,

You were the best loving, too caring mommy anyone can have. You sacrificed your young life for my brother and then you sacrificed your life for me. You worked hard as a factory laborer to make sure that I went to one of the best catholic schools in NY and came home everyday after taking 3 trains and 2 buses in rain, snow or extreme heat with a smile on your face willing to take me anywhere I wanted to go.

I will never forget how much you loved and spoiled me. I'm the woman I am today because you were soooooo strick with me and I was somewhat a good girl because I never wanted to hurt you. I have great kids because I imposed the same nurturing and rules you raised me with.

Rest In Peace Mommy. You are now with God and grandma and your 3 siblings, and my two doggies.

I LOVE YOU FOREVER AND EVER AND EVER. Your daughter Evelyn
Nana,

I'm always going to miss your wakeup calls to come over and eat a tortilla. My favorite kind of phone call. I've tried over and over again to make it like you but its missing your love and without that I can never satisfy that recipe. I love you so much. All the sleep overs and crazy movies and tv shows we made you watch when you had no idea what was going on. Then you did the same for me and had me watch your crazy Spanish novelas that if I didn't know any better, Id think you were and actress in them too. Your love is irreplaceable and will forever be a part of my heart and soul. I'm at peace knowing you are no longer in pain and with your family you have missed for so long.

I love you always,

Your Pololita,
Illyssa.

Nana,
I can't express the love I had for you. You were my best friend, my 2nd mother, my everything.
You always knew before I could open my mouth what was wrong with me. You always covered for me, and loved me for who I was without a single judgment. May you rest in peace my beautiful angel. I know you will be with me through tough times.
I feel you around me now and I will never let go of this feeling.
I love you forever nana.

I love you always,
Your Pololo,
Adrian

Dear Nana,

I always brag about how strong and healthy you are. I brag about how good your cooking is and how you're so independent that you do all of your grocery shopping by yourself and that you're over 80 years old. Not everybody gets the opportunity to experience a grandmother's unconditional love, and I'm lucky enough to have had that all the way through my mid-twenties. You always made me feel safe when I watched scary movies as a kid; I remember the night I watched beetlejuice clearly, you stayed up with me in the living room and watched your novelas until midnight (and that was really late for me at the time). I'm going to miss all those things about you, but your love and your spirit will always be felt.

I love you,
Your pololito
Christian

Mami,
I'm blessed to have two Angels in my life My Mother is one of them and my grandmother

Virginia is the other. I have been Blessed. I can't remember anytime my mother was not there for my sister and me. she would sacrifice the little bit of money she earned to make sure we had food on the table and a roof over our head and not to mention piano lessen and more. I realize at very early age I had the best mother in the world. Mother you were blessed and taught us to believe in Our Father in Heaven. Thank you Mami You will always be in my heart forever. May you rest in Peace. In our Lord Jesus Name....AMEM!!

Love you Mami,
Your son Jose Miguel (Mille)

Grandma Consuelo,

Where to start,... cafe con leche. Grandma Consuelo never missed a day treating me with breakfast and a cup of cafe con leche whenever we were together.

Tons of memories from Christmas in the NJ apartment with the family to spending time living with us in New City for a while. I remember getting excited when she came to visit. I would always prepare the den for her where she had her pink corduroy chair from her old apartment. She always showed all of her grandchildren exceptional love. I am grateful she is now in peace with God and her presence will now always be with us.

Love you Grandama,
Your Joey

Vieja,

Remembering you with love as you were always looking your best wherever you went. Always about your kids and grandchildren.... Wanting the best for them. You were always there for us spending your time whenever you could with your family. Sharing recipes and cooking up a storm in the kitchen, oh that food was so good for a foodie like me ;-). You are out of your pain now resting in peace with the Lord. May God place his mercy and grace abundantly upon your spirit.

Love you always,
Debbie

Nani,

While it took years for my grandmother and I to be able to communicate in Spanglish, I always understood her love. She was kind and gentle, and treated her family like royalty. She consistently demonstrated style and class with her manicured nails and auburn hair. She was quiet the beauty. She was always dressed up adorning her jewelry. These are just examples of her beauty, but there was something I learned from her that did not have to be spoken. It wasn't just style. It was class. She always demonstrated pride in who she was. And that is how I will remember my grandmother. A strong, determined, classy lady who did everything she could for her family. She deserved all the very best this world has to offer. And it goes without saying... The woman could cook. What I wouldn't do for just one more of her dishes! I hope I can carry on the legacy of Ms. Consuelo Carril.

Love your Niece Denina

Mi Vieja,

I have so much to say that it would take me months and months to get it all down in paper. I came into your life when I was just 23 years old. You and the other love of my life, Minina, took me in and treated me like a king in your house. Both of you defended me like I was a son that could do no wrong in your eyes. The love you gave me was unconditional; like the love that only a mother feels. As a grandmother to my children, you were the best that any spoiled child can ever wish for, at that Vieja, you were an expert. It is a miracle that you lived to be 90 with the abuse you put your body through trying to follow around 3 crazy grandchildren and all their wild escapades.

Vieja, you will always remain in my heart and I will never forget you. At this time I pray to God that you are happily reunited with all those family members that have gone before.

PS: When you see Minina & Lilla tell them that I miss them, and have never forgotten them.

Con todo mi amor mi Vieja chula, que descanses en paz. Ya no hay mas dolor,

Tu hijo, Papon.

“ Nana,

There are not enough words to express how much I love you. I'm so blessed to have had you in my life. I miss you so much already but I'm at peace because you are no longer suffering & you're finally free. I love you today, tomorrow, and always.

“ I am honored and blessed to say I was a recipient of Nana's love & kindness. I've only known her a few years but she always made me feel loved, welcomed in her home & like I truly belonged. Though I know the name Nana was reserved for her grandchildren, she let me call her that too. She was strong, independent, kind, compassionate & oh so funny. I will always carry her memory in my heart. Thank you Evelyn, for giving me the opportunity to say goodbye & spend Nana's final moments with her. My heart breaks for you, but I see Nana's strength in you & I know that you will persevere. May her love & memory always be with you & comfort you during this difficult time. I love you.

“ El dolor es inmenso. La pérdida es irreparable. La muerte nos arranca lo más querido. Pero aunque físicamente no este, su calor y su recuerdo nos acompañaran hasta nuestro aliento final. Después de Dios padre esta ella desde el mismo comienzo de nuestra vida alimentando nuestro ser, cuidando nos, amándonos. Dios la tiene en su seno. Descanse en paz. Lo siento y conozco tu dolor y el de toda la familia. Ánimo. Siempre estará contigo. De Fermin
