

Sarkis Kulhanjian

July 2, 1940 - May 7, 2015

Sam was born July 2, 1940 to Sarkis Kulhanjian and Maritza Davidian Kulhanjian and raised in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. In 1968, Sam and his wife Agnes (Meserlian) moved to South Florida and eventually settled in Cooper City. Together they raised two daughters, Lisa and Stacey Kulhanjian Thompson.

Sam was a loving and devoted husband, father, and grandfather. He enjoyed fishing, golf, spending time with family and friends, trips to Philadelphia and Disney World with the grand kids. He was also an outstanding caregiver.

Sam's illness and passing on May 7, 2015 were unexpected. He will be greatly missed by his wife, children, son-in-law: David Thompson, grandchildren: Kaitlyn and Logan, and extended family members and friends.

In Lieu of flowers, please donate to one of the family preferred charities: St. Gregory Armenian Apostolic Church, Armenia Tree Project, or Vitas Community Connection. To Donate please go to the Donation tab.

A memorial service is planned to take place in Philadelphia

Comments

---

“ "Sam the Man" as Dalton would say. He was a Fabulous neighbor, our car broke down at a store and Sam came to the rescue, gave me his car so I could take the groceries and Dalton home while he sat with my car waiting on the tow truck. Always smiling and waving to you. Sam will be missed by all of us. Thoughts and Prayers to Agnes and the Family.

With our deepest sympathy,
The Sorrels'

Pam Sorrels - May 26, 2015 at 05:32 PM

---

“ Uncle Sammy was one of the kindest, most loving men I have ever known. He was completely devoted to his family and friends, and was loved by everyone who knew him.
He had an open heart, and always told us how much he loved us and how much we meant to him. I hope and pray he knew how much he meant to so many of us. I miss you every day, Uncle Sam.

Marybeth - May 25, 2015 at 06:29 PM