

Anita Christy Denson-Albritton

April 20, 1989 - July 16, 2025

“Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. — 2 Corinthians 3:17

Like the butterfly that emerges from its cocoon, Anita Christy Denson’s life was a journey of transformation, beauty, and purpose — and now she has taken flight into the eternal embrace of her Creator.

Anita was born on April 20, 1989, in Miami, Florida, a vibrant soul from the very start. She was the beloved daughter of Spencer Williams and the late Patricia Ann Denson, and the cherished sister to Angel-Selena Denson, Tracey Williams, Ashley Clark, and Ashanta Wright. Her love was shared with a wide circle of family — two grandmothers, Mary Williams and Myrtice Wilcox Denson; three aunts, Margaret Ann Denson, Tina Williams, and Carolyn Albritton; and two uncles, Berry U. Denson and Victor Williams. She now joins in peace her mother and her grandfather, Berry Denson Sr.

From a young age, Anita carried an unshakable curiosity and a deep love of learning. She graduated from the Public Service Academy of William H. Turner Technical Arts High School in 2007, then set her sights on higher education at Florida A&M University—proudly becoming a Rattler. Her time at FAMU was one of the brightest chapters of her life. She thrived in the vibrant campus community, built lifelong friendships, and embraced the school’s rich tradition of “Excellence with Caring”. In 2011, she earned a Bachelor of Science in Political Science, a degree that reflected her passion for advocacy, justice, and making a difference in the lives of others.

Her career path reflected her heart for service and leadership, with roles at the American College of Rheumatology as a Specialist ARP Governance, KIPP College Preparatory Public Schools as a Development Associate, and the Morehouse School of Medicine Department of Pediatrics as a Program Manager.

Anita was more than her accomplishments — she was a giver, a volunteer, and a voice for others. In Atlanta, she poured her energy into her community as an Advisory Board Member at the My World: Global Citizenship for Teens program, A member of the Social Wellness for Women; The Lines and Binds Book Club and The Masterclass-Style writing for Storytelling.

Books were Anita's lifelong companions. From her middle school years to adulthood, she built a treasured collection — so many that when she moved to college, she brought a trunk full to Tallahassee. She loved painting, drawing, writing short stories, listening to music, traveling the world, and attending concerts and festivals. And if you knew Anita, you knew her favorite actor, without question, was Leonardo DiCaprio.

Her life was a story — one filled with love, creativity, service, and joy, but also with challenges she faced with unshakable courage. She endured hardships in her early life, yet she rose above them with grace, strength, and determination. Anita was a survivor in every sense of the word — using her resilience to fuel her compassion for others and her passion for living fully. And while her earthly chapter has closed far too soon, her spirit continues to inspire, reminding us to live fully, give generously, and never stop chasing beauty, like a butterfly on the wind.

“ Tribute to My Beloved Anita

My dear Anita, my granddaughter, I will miss you more than words can express. I love you with all my heart and cherish every moment we shared.

From the time you were little, I looked forward to our weekends—picking you up each Saturday, as we headed to Barnes & Noble for a new book you couldn't wait to read. Your curiosity and joy in discovering new stories brought light to my days.

You were more than just my reading companion. Every Sunday, you helped me in the kitchen, mastering family recipes side by side as we prepared holiday feasts. We stirred pots and shared secrets.

We've traveled too—road trips with the windows down, vacations brimming with discovery. Watching you explore the world with wide eyes and an open heart reminded me to see life through your wonder.

I'll miss your radiant smile, your infectious laughter, and the warmth of your wonderful personality. You filled our family with joy and purpose.

You are loved deeply and always will be. Rest in peace, my sweet, sweet granddaughter. Your memory will live on in every book we read, every meal we cook, and every journey we take.

Love Grandma Myrtice

“ Anita was an AmeriCorps VISTA serving in my program at Morehouse College. She was a highly intelligent, vibrant young African American woman. She was a hard worker, and simply lovely. I am so grateful to have known her, and that we stayed in touch. She dearly loved her sister Selena.

She will be missed but never forgotten.

Lovingly,

“ Anita was such a beautiful young woman. She was a caring person and everyone she met loved her. We conversed and spent time sharing our personal goals and aspirations over the past 7 years. She shared her love for family and her dog, princess. She also loved to travel. Anita was very special to me. I am blessed to have crossed paths with her. She will truly be missed but never forgotten. I loved her dearly. Rest in peace beautiful princess.

“ I was blessed to have met Anita Denson as a child in middle school, in 6th grade, around 2001. She became my first real best friend. Shortly after meeting her, I met our bestie, Ricardo Gonzalez, and from then on, we were a trio that was inseparable.

It's not every day you hear about friendships that last over 20 years—but that's what we had! Anita was always good-hearted, easygoing, supportive, loving, loyal, strong, ambitious, brilliant, and quirky. She always wanted to do things the right way. She was unique, one of a kind, and such an intricate part of my life. I can still hear her laugh now, it was contagious and she had the most beautiful smile. I can count on one hand the number of disagreements or disputes we ever had; we were supernaturally compatible.

We shared so many beautiful and meaningful memories. We went to middle school, high school, and even college together. We took trips, lived together, went to parties, cooked together, you name it, we did it. We grew up together and did life together.

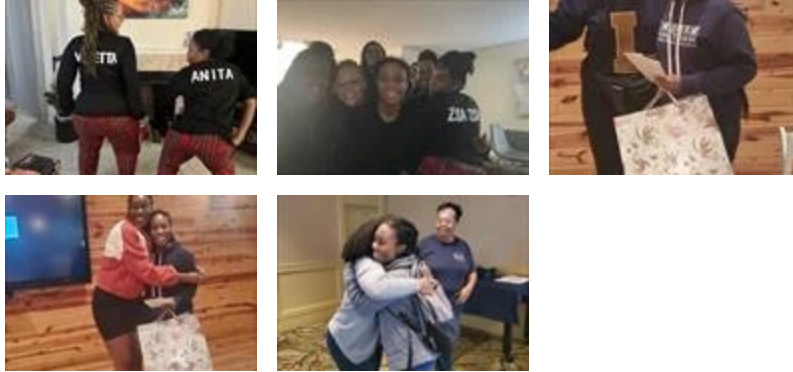

We celebrated milestones and special occasions, and we even faced unfortunate events side by side. She was a constant in my life, and I have nothing but joyful memories to hold onto. I am so grateful that God divinely brought us together as friends and sisters. Life was so great with her in it. It will be different now, but I know God will carry me through.
