“ My wife and I are deeply grieved by this death. We first met him when he came to this country and our friend Murugan brought him to our house for a Sri Lankan meal. He also wanted us to provide any help he needed. We exchanged visits during his school days and thereafter. He assisted me along with others in drafting the present cricket rules which are used in our quadrangular. he was an avid sports enthusiast and insisted in playing in 1997 when he had a ACL tear, then recently last October in our Masters game. We may not have agreed in all cricket matters but never let those matters interfere with our relationship.

We will miss him a lot and wish to express our condolences to his family.

“ I have met Anurudda at our annual cricket encounters and a few other times and he stood out with his humbleness and friendliness everytime I encountered him. It sometimes seems as though the best ones are taken away the earliest. Please accept our deepest condolences.

“ I've known Anu from the first day he landed in Miami, USA. I've known his father since the 80's in London long before Anu's arrival in USA and he's a family friend. Anu is just like his father - intelligent, mild mannered and very kind. He would do anything for his friends. We miss his contributions to the Miami Cricket team and the Sri Lankan community in Florida. Anu is Forever Remembered & Forever Missed.

“ Dear Aunty, Uncle, Niranjala, Tien, Priyanka Chaminda and Chiran,

My sincere sympathies comes from the bottom of my heart at this time of your sorrow.

Everything changes, nothing remains without change. I am sorry we lost him but truly he left with touching many hearts. I truly admire Anu for his strength. He was not a looser but a fighter. He was the most positive person with the strongest willpower I have ever met in my life. Anu was the first Sri Lankan person I met when I moved to Florida 15 years ago. I am glad I met Anu and I am sad for his departure. However, he has opened my eyes what life is all about at the end.

MAY HE ATTAIN SUPREME BLISS OF NIBBAN!
