“ Carl E. Rudd had many names. He was Carl, Eddie, Dad, Pops, Daddy-Carl, Pop-Pop, The Tool Man, and various others. He meant many things to many people. He was a son, a brother, a friend, a father, a grandfather, a guide, an ally and a hard worker. Most of all, he was a man that respected and cared for other people, especially those he felt had ‘it rough’. Making people smile was one of his favorite things to do. Even in his final days, everyone knew him as a “happy man, always making jokes”. He had a quick wit and a kind heart. His faith in God was strong and he is resting now with his loved ones who left before him. Our family was lucky to have him, and we will all miss him because the world was a better place with him in it.
