

Cornelia Rose Dickens

November 18, 1931 - September 19, 2016

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Cornelia Rose Dickens

January 25, 2023 at 07:44 PM

“ What Julie said goes for me. This is a beautiful tribute to Cornelia. Cornelia, like most people, didn't have a human experience free of important challenges. But throughout, she embodied principle and love for her family and others. And what a varied and interesting life! I love some of the things from this I learned about her singing, and how, with two native languages, English and Spanish, she used both to be a blessing. And I love this picture of Cornelia, especially her eyes, so filled with expectancy and thoughtfulness. Godspeed, Cornelia, for what beautiful experience is next for you!

Dave Smith - October 22, 2016 at 10:09 AM

“ What a beautiful tribute and what an AMAZING life story! Her family ranges all over the world. What a wonderful thing. I'm privileged to know Glynis and am privileged to get a peek at Cornelia's fascinating life.

Julie Williams - October 12, 2016 at 03:47 PM