

Eric Anthony Brown

March 27, 1958 - June 19, 2025

Eric Anthony Brown was born on March 27, 1958, to Louis and Gloria Brown in Kingston, Jamaica. He spent his formative years in Bog Walk, St. Catherine, where he received his early education at Tulloch Primary and later attended Dint-hill Technical High School. He then pursued tertiary studies at the College of Arts, Science and Technology (now the University of Technology), Jamaica.

On April 9, 1988, Eric was joined in holy matrimony to Angela Anderson. Their loving union endured for over 37 years and was marked by deep affection, mutual support, and unwavering companionship.

By the close of the 1980s, Eric and his beautiful wife migrated to the United States and made Miami, Florida their home. He furthered his education at Barry University, obtaining a Bachelor of Arts degree in Accounting. This academic achievement led to full-time employment at a prominent international company. While working there, he continued to advance professionally by earning a Master's degree in Accounting. After 17 years with that company, he joined another major corporation, where he worked for eight years until his passing.

Eric was known for his kind and caring nature, especially toward his beloved wife Angela, his mother Gloria, his sister Yvonne, and other close relatives. He extended that warmth to everyone he met, always ready to offer a kind word or a light-hearted comment to bring a smile to someone's face.

A health-conscious individual. Eric maintained an active lifestyle, exercising several times a week and including at least one workout at the gym. However, his greatest passion was music. He was rarely without it—whether driving to and from work or relaxing on the weekends. He also enjoyed attending reggae concerts, where he saw many of his favorite performers live over the years.

Eric was also an avid sports enthusiast with a deep passion for a wide range of athletic pursuits. He followed basketball with great interest and was a devoted fan of motorsports, especially Formula 1 and IndyCar racing. He enjoyed the thrill of horse racing and never missed the excitement of major track and field events. Whether watching a championship game or a Grand Prix, Eric found joy in the discipline, strategy, and spirit of competition that defined each sport.

True to the meaning of his name, Eric Anthony embodied strength, honor, and unwavering integrity throughout his life. He faced challenges with quiet resilience and carried himself with dignity and grace. His actions reflected a man of deep principle—steadfast in his commitments, compassionate in his relationships, and generous in spirit. Highly praiseworthy in both word and deed, Eric has left a lasting impact on those who knew him. To his family and friends, he was truly a priceless presence—irreplaceable, deeply loved, and forever cherished.

Eric is survived by his wife, Angela Anderson-Brown; his mother, Gloria Brown; and sister, Yvonne.

“ A TRIBUTE TO MY SON ERIC ANTHONY BROWN

Today, my heart is heavy with grief, as I say farewell to my son Eric.

Job 1 : 21 tells us "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away, blessed be the name of the Lord".

Eric was my only son and the second of three children. His eldest sister predeceased him.

As a child, he was very obedient, quiet, helpful, and kind-hearted. Eric was very independent. He enjoyed helping in and around the house, and for him this was his duty.

He was a member of the St. Thomas Ye Vale Anglican Church. When Eric left home for College, I did not worry because I knew he was capable of taking care of himself. He loved using his broom. Eric continued on the same path throughout his teenage years and into adulthood. A caring human being with an open heart and a generous spirit.

He knew what he wanted to achieve in life and worked hard to reach his goal.

Eric, we are very proud of you as a son and brother. You made sure that we were always comfortable . Your constant support and attentiveness truly demonstrated your love and admiration for your family and friends. You were a tower of strength to one and all.

As a mother, I sometimes can be very difficult to deal with, but Eric never made this a problem. He showed love and respect no matter the situation.

In May, 2024, Eric and his wife Angie visited us for a few days. We had a great time on the North Coast, but little did I know, that this would have been his last visit to share with us.

My greatest regret is the fact that I was not able to have one last word with him, before he passed. I am however comforted by the fact that his transition was peaceful and he is now with the angels above.

I feel like a part of me has been taken away forever. I miss the *frequent telephone calls, weekly or sometimes daily.

Eric, my son, I miss you, I love you and I vow to cherish the memories you left us. To his colleagues, family, friends and especially Angie, let us remember that "The memories we make with the people we love are the most valuable treasures we have".
Eric, my son, SLEEP IN PERFECT PEACE
FAREWELL.
MAY LIGHT PERPETUAL SHINE ON YOU.*

*I MISS YOU
My mind knows
That you are in a better place
Where there is no pain
You are at peace*

*I understand that,
I just wish I could explain
it to my heart.
There is an empty space in it that nothing will ever fill.*

*I grieve, but I know my tears are for me
We will be together again. Until then, my love will always be with you.*

“ My deepest condolences to the family of Eric. Eric was one of my closest friends while growing up in Knollis. We did things that typical teenagers did. Like playing soccer, cricket, riding my bicycle other mischievous things. I last saw and spoke to Eric in 1988. We reconnected about a year ago and made plans to link up the next time I was in Florida. Two weekends ago I came to Florida and had every intention of calling him. It wasn't to because I got the call while boarding the flight the Friday morning. RIP my brother. One love.

Deepest condolences to Eric and family . This is truly a great stock to us all . Eric and I were very close and grow together, we even formed a stronger bond during our time in College . Will surely miss Eric' s love for strong debating and his calm persistency in getting his point across. We last spoke in Dec 2024 after not being in contact for several years, very delightful and uplifting experience which I welcomed as the door to the opening of recalling good times together. Little did I know that would be the last time I would hear from my life long friend. Rest well my friend in God' s enduring love.

“ First and foremost:

Condolences 🌸 to the Brown family..

Eric was a very quiet, kind, caring and loving person, I knew him just before I went to JSA, he used to visit me, and bearing gifts, milk, Milo, chocolate and soup, because campus food wasn't palatable at times.

After not seeing him for over 30 years, during my recovery from 3 brain surgeries, I got to contacted him through a mutual friend, to know if I had done him wrong, we had a lot of catching up... "My friend, if I hadn't, I would be still wondering".. 😞

My remembrance of him, will be, when he laugh, he would grasps for breath a little, holding his head down, and cover his face, that was so funny to me..!! 😊❤️

Eric, my friend,, being with Jesus Christ, that rest, that peace, was beyond my comprehension, I know, because I have been there, burning my first brain surgery.

"REST IN PEACE MY FRIEND"..!! one day, we'll get to laugh again for eternity...
