“ Harvey was there for me when I was a homeless runaway living on the streets in the 1970's. I will never forget how kind he was to me and my first Christmas in Florida while living at his home in Hallandale. He was always active and busy roller skating, going out dancing, and his love of photography. I remember he had a wonderful niece Susan (I believe it was his sister's daughter) who used to visit all the time. Sending my condolences to his family, please reach out to me if you want a photo of Harvey that I have. Thank you Harvey for caring for me, and rest in peace! Love, Marisa Dawson, RN
