“ Mima was a wonderful great grandmother, and to see her gone will be a hole in this family and my hearts. I will never forget the memories of me going to her house to bring steaks with my dad. And even though I didn't understand her and she didn't understand me doesn't mean my love for her is not great. I believe mima is in heaven right now eating steak with the love of her life.

“ Abuela ☐ I'll never forget our long nail talks, the little to-do lists you always had ready for me the moment I walked in the door, and the way you'd ask me what I was craving just so you could cook it with love. I'll miss sitting with you, eating together, sharing a coke and those simple moments that meant everything. The pic with the knives you wanted, we laughed so much. I pray you're resting peacefully with God, watching over us. Say hi to abuelo and tell my dad we miss him.. Te quiero siempre. ❤️Katie

“ mima i love you so much i miss being able to to tell you te quiero mucho. I feel so special that i was your first great grandchild. I remember i was the only one that could play with your plants and you wouldn't get mad at me. I know you loved your plants so much but you loved me more. The green candy you would give me when I came over. I'm going to miss most of all being called joseito i will miss it all mima i miss you so much i love you i wish you were still with us i will never forget you for as long as i live

“ What an honor it was to have known this incredible woman. She loved fiercely - her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and those of us lucky enough to marry into her beautiful family. I feel so blessed for the time I got to spend with her, always welcomed with love and snacks into her home, telling me stories about her grandkids, and taking me on a tour of her beautiful garden. She was a light in all of our lives that will continue to shine on “ Mima was the best grandmother anyone could ask for—and without a doubt, my biggest fan.

She always showed up, always believed in me, and always made me feel supported no matter what. That kind of love sticks with you. My kids loved her just as much. Being around her felt easy—like home. Her house was always warm, always welcoming, and her cooking was on another level.

Some of my favorite memories are traveling together for baseball. Just being with her, talking, laughing—those are the moments I’ll hold onto. I’ll miss the little things the most, like kissing her cheeks and seeing her smile.

I’ll carry those memories with me forever. Love you always, Mima.

“ To my beautiful Tía Irma,

I will love you forever and miss you more than words can express. You were like a second mother to me—so loving, so constant, so special. I will always cherish our calls and visits, the moments we shared, and the warmth you gave so freely.

You will live forever in my heart. Gregory misses you deeply as well—you always took the time to check on him, and that meant so much to both of us.

My heart aches, but I find comfort in knowing you are reunited with Chicho and Carlitos, together again, watching over all of us with love.

I will love you forever. Ili

“ Mi abuela abuela, gracias por ayudarme siempre a arreglar cualquier cosa que necesitara: a coser mi ropa, a planchar, a quitar manchas y a reparar joyas rotas. Gracias por enseñarme a cuidar de mis plantas, a interesarme por la moda y por cocinar para mí la comida cubana más deliciosa que jamás probaré; por curarme siempre que estaba enferma; por dedicarme siempre tu tiempo y cuidarme en mis peores momentos. Y, sobre todo, por enseñarme a amar incondicionalmente. Te amo y te extrañaré por siempre.

“ My grandmother was more than just family—she was my safe place. Growing up, she always made sure I was taken care of, whether it was through her cooking or simply being there when I was sick home from school. Her love was constant, warm, and unconditional. I’ll always carry those memories with me, and I’m forever grateful for everything she gave me. She taught me a lot through her actions that will always live through me.

“ To my beautiful, sweet Tia - you weren't just my aunt; you were a second mother to me. You always told me that I was such much like you, and I will carry that as a badge of honor forever. Thank you for the way you loved me and my sister, always treating us as your very own. I am going to miss our phone calls and our visits more than words can say. You will be in my heart forever. I love you Mi Tia

“ My grandmother loved her family so much...it was felt in every squeeze, every hug, every word, every meal she cooked, and every little thing she did. She had the most beautiful heart, and I feel so lucky to have been loved by her. I'll miss her forever.

“ My mother was selfless. Always caring about those that she loved. Her kids and grandkids were her life. She loved me unconditionally and taught me how to be the mother I am today. Losing her has jolted the family but has also brought us closer which was her ultimate desire. I adore her and will cherish her forever. ”
