“ Dear Jennifer's Family, Words are not enough to convey our deepest condolences to all of you. Jennifer was a beautiful, and gentle being here on earth. I've known the Broderick Family since 1992. There have been many, many, years of joy shared with this family but many times of sorrow as well. I can't think of anytime more heart wrenching than this. I truly am sorry that I am not there right now with you, Kathy. My heart aches for you. I will continue to say my prayers for all and pray that God eases your pain and give you peace and strength. I Love YOU!

“ Dear Boone Family, I am so sorry for your loss. I am positive that she will be missed. Death is an already hard thing to cope with, and when it's an unexpected death it's even harder. I know that right now it may be very hard for you and your family to find that comfort, but I would like to share with you what has helped me in times like these. It's found in the Bible, at 1 Thessalonians 4:13. It says “..brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant about those sleeping in death..”. This gives me comfort to know that my dead loved ones are not in some fiery place or somewhere far from our reach. Gods word the Bible says they are in a peaceful sleep-like state, this gives me much comfort and I hope it gives you some too.

“ Please accept our deepest condolences. Take knowledge in knowing that those who have died, to God are as good as alive. "A good name is better than good oil, and the day of death is better than the day of birth." Ecclesiastes 7:1
