Uncle John always marched to his own drummer. Old soldiers never die they just slowly march away!

“ I remember talking with Uncle John for hours about baseball and football and waiting each week until he had finished reading the Sporting News so I could read it. He was very proud of his military service during both the Korean War and the Vietnam War. I still have the book that Ted Williams gave him when he visited the wounded soldiers at Walter reed Hospital. John loved his ice cream and I remember stories he told about making donuts in the shop he owned in Knoxville with his sister and her husband. He loved his sports and followed the WV football team. I will miss his "Well now partner" greeting. I remember one summer when the rest of the family went on vacation and Uncle John and I were the only ones at home and we took turns making dinner. Well come his turn he took a pound of ground beef out of the package and placed it in the frying pan and cooked it and then cut it in half and said here is your burger. After that I cooked dinner or brought it home. I will miss my Uncle and always have good memories of him.
