

Lois Eudovique

May 14, 1969 - May 18, 2026

Forever In Our Hearts:

God loaned us a precious gift in Lois Mavis Eudovique, and though her earthly journey has ended, her eternal story has just begun. Born on May 14, 1969, Lois was loved by many. She was a daughter, loving sister, cherished aunt, and treasured grand-aunt whose life reflected faith, love, strength, and conviction. Her infectious laugh, warm spirit, and loving heart brought joy and comfort to everyone blessed to know her.

As the beloved daughter of Bishop Joseph Eudovique and the late Sheila Eudovique, Lois leaves behind a legacy of love, resilience, and faith that will continue to live on through her family and all whose lives she touched. Though she departed this earthly life on May 18, 2026, we honor her life not only with tears but with gratitude for the beautiful memories, laughter, and unwavering love she shared so freely.

Our beloved Lois "Lodee" Eudovique was preceded in death by her mom Sheila Eudovique and sisters Naomi Eudovique and Judith Eudovique. She is survived by her father Bishop Joseph Eudovique, her brothers Samuel Eudovique, Reuben Eudovique, and Jonathan Eudovique, her sisters Lydia Eudovique, Miriam Eudovique-John, Eudora Eudovique, and Julia Eudovique-Mc Kay, and her nieces, nephews, grandnieces, grandnephews, cousins, her church family, and special friends, too many to mention by name.

While our hearts grieve her absence, we find peace in God's promise that her spirit now rests eternally in His presence, where joy and love never end.

“ I can never claim “one of my fondest memories...” because every single memory of my sister, Lois has been one that lifted my spirit. Has anyone ever left a mark on your life in the most positive ways, leaving you to feel a thousand times better than the moments before? That was my sister Lois, utterly pleasant with an amazing sense of humor. She mastered the true meaning of love, kindness, respect, and compassion - some of the traits she exuded while she was loaned to us for such a short while. Thank God for His gift that will forever be kept close to my heart. ❤️ Now rest...till we meet again. 🙏

“ One of my fondest memories is when we did her apartment housewarming gift exchange, and you said you wanted a shiny red tea kettle. For the life of me, I couldn't understand why you didn't want an electric one—but you knew exactly what you wanted, and that was so you.

During your time with us, you taught us so many lessons. And even in your passing, you've given me so much to reflect on and carry forward.... Rest in ABBA my sister.

“ There's so much I want to say, but what I really want to say is this: I placed this candle here because it reminds me of you. In many ways, you are part of the light that helps me make it through the darkness. Of course, God is the true source of that light, without question. But I believe He has also used you as part of that blessing in my life.

“ I remember seeing one another on the streets of Overtown and being genuinely happy whenever our paths crossed. What we encountered was love, respect, and understanding. We shared something very special together—our love for the Father and our gratitude for all that He has done in our lives.

To the family, please accept my deepest condolences. My prayers are with you during this difficult time. May God continue to strengthen you, comfort you, and bless your family abundantly.

Thank you for allowing me to share. God bless.

“ Hey Lois, it was a pleasure sharing the last 2 years with you. Growing up, I remember you hitting me and running and hiding between Grams legs and me crying because I could not get to hit you back. I now smile at those memories. Thank you for pouring into my life and my family lives. Thank you for allowing God to use you in the moments where you were going through. I love you and you will be truly missed. Claudie
