“ Bác Hai

We still remember the year of 2008 when we came to visit you and your family.

That was the 1st time we met but Bác gave us a very warm welcome.

Con and anh Edward were impressed about Bác. Bác cooked for us, took us around town, went to play the lotto and told us fun stories about Grandpa and Grandma.

Anh Edward always mentioned about Bác as a nice and kind Uncle.

Bác Hai will be in our hearts forever.

May you rest in peace and see Grandpa and Grandma again.

Sincerely,

Your Niece and Nephew-in-Law.

“ You always taught our kids to be respectful and when meeting someone look them in the eye and shake their hand firmly.

You always had meticulously neat handwriting, and took tremendous pride in everything you did.

You always wanted to treat the family to dinner, and would fight over the check if anyone dare disagree.

You would always want to hear about any family members' successes and celebrate them as a family.

Even when your health was declining, you were always thinking and worrying about everyone else and not yourself.

I will always remember you as a selfless, loving, hard-working and genuine family man and gentleman. It was an honor and privilege to be a part of your life. May you rest in a very well deserved peace.

Sincerely,

Your Daughter-In-Law

“ I remember, every time I went to your house. I would see you and come over to say hi and shake your hand. I loved every single time that happened because your face would always light up with joy and you would point at my hair with a smile and comment on it. It was always a blessing to be around you because you were just so relaxing and it was like a temporary pause in life, with all the outside problems being in the background.

I'll miss you so much and I wish we could've had more time together but I am glad you are not in pain anymore and can finally rest in peace.

I love you with all my heart Grandpa. Thank you for everything.

Love,
Your Grandson

“ All I can say is THANK YOU for being the best Grandpa that a grandson could ever have! From your wisdom to your guidance to just the calming presence you had, I feel so blessed to have had you around in my life from when I was a little boy all the way to when I became a man. Through all the ups and downs, you were always so loving and supportive and I couldn't be more grateful.

One of my most heartwarming memories of you is when I was a kid and would spend the weekends at your house in Hialeah and watch TV, eat good Vietnamese food, and sleep over there. You'd take me to the grocery store and I would love you letting me punch in the numbers on a lottery ticket. We never won but that didn't matter. It was just a joy to share and appreciate the simple pleasures in life with you. You were always just so pleasant to be around and would always smile whenever I would joke around with you.

While I am sad that you have now gone to heaven, I know you'll be watching over us and I believe that we will see each other again.

With all my heart, I love you Grandpa. I'll miss you. Rest easy.

Love,

Your grandson

“ I remember,
Sunlight spilling from windows taller than I could reach.
My little bare feet dangling off the old brown couch that’s moved since then.
And a malformed face taking shape under my focused glare, the drawing pad digging into my legs as I drove the pen into it.
You came over and squeezed in next to me with a smile, asking what I was doing. Much to my delight, you wanted to join me on my mission to become a “good drawer”.
I had always admired the artistic “skills” of all adults, and was incredibly eager to see them up close, so I offered you the pad with a peculiar blend of reverence and childlike carelessness.

I remember how you rolled your dress sleeves up, crinkling the stiff fabric cooled by the AC softly blowing above us. The gentle way you held that fat green pen. The sound of the tip dragging across the bumpy synthetic surface. Every deliberate line formed a new feature until suddenly, my new ideal had appeared on that bright orange piece of plastic.

I remember the laugh coming to me instinctively, and I remember you laughing at my joyful giggles, joining my small celebration.

And I will always remember you that way.

With all the love in the world,

Your granddaughter

“ Devasting News when I found out Chú (Uncle) Long passed away. So, memories as child especially when we would have family reunion in either DC or Miami. One of my fondest memories is when I child we flew down to Christmas, and the night of Christmas before we had our family dinner you were telling Dì that you gave me a piggy bank in Vietnamese and I would understand and I got excited and said, "Piggy Bank", your facial expression was hilarious.

Please continued to watch over the family, and we will continued cherish your legacy.
