“ Michael B Weissinger is my only sibling. He was always a caring, loving person. He spent most of his life helping others. Michael may have seemed somber to those who met him, as an adult. but he was on mission in the this life, to spread the word of God to those who didn't know of God and Jesus. However, upon his 2 or 3 month visit, three years ago, he got tickled about a childhood memory and giggled just like he did as a child. Michael remained a child at heart. I was overjoyed to hear such glee. I respected my brother as a good and honest man and am truly grateful he is my brother.

My deepest condolences Sherri on the loss of your brother. Did he live in Jerusalem in the 90's? If so I met him there and he was a real inspiration to me. May you find comfort in your precious memories and that Michael is now truly at rest in the presence of God.
