Monique McCorvey

AKA: Monique Moree

You left your homeland of France, after your marriage to an American Air Force Servicemen James E. Moree, to begin your new life and start a family at a young age. After moving cross country a number of times you ended up in Miami. Though the marriage didn't stand the test of time, you and dad gave us the best. You both never stopped working, to be sure your children had all you could ever have dreamed of, as a child.

You met your husband, Bruce McCorvey, of course, at work. when he saw you he said he was going to marry that woman, and he did. At the age of 27 years old, having never been married, Bruce married his wife Monique with 2 teenage children. Was not an easy task but he never left us behind. We were his kids as much as we were hers. Until his sudden passing in 2011.

You have always been a fighter. You battled breast cancer 3 times. After your mastectomy, 3rd battle, your remission ended and you began battle #4. This time metastatic breast cancer. You fought along with your oxygen dependence and worked up until 2015. You fought the good fight. One might call you a HERO, I know I do.

You are the strongest person so many know and you should hold pride in all you've accomplished. Married for 33 years until Bruce suddenly passed in 2011. Raised 2 children who adore you and never stopped fighting and working when you could.

R.I.P. Finally,
Your fight is over,
You win!
God Bless you Monique (mom)

Should you wish, please make a contribution to the American Breast Cance Society in Monique McCorvey's Memory.

“ Mom, I can't believe that I'm writing this. I'm not ready for you to be gone, but you are, God took you to be with him. To put you out of your pain, but it all happened so fast. You are sorely missed.

I miss our phone calls. I keep finding myself, telling myself at our regular time, that I need to call, then realize that I can't. I miss your advice, your compassion, your voice. You were my 2nd mom, but you knew more about me than my own mom. You helped me thru good times and tough times. I may not have always taken your advice, but you listened, no matter how many times I told you the same thing, and I listened to what you would tell me.

I miss our morning coffee, that stopped when I moved but we still had that to remember. Our almost nightly calls replaced that but we made do, tho it wasn't quite the same for either of us. Then you went to the hospital and I couldn't talk to you at all.

I'm sorry that I didn't make it home to be with you, but I feel that you knew that I couldn't. Corinne made sure, for me, that you knew I loved you and I know that you loved me. She kept me up to date with all that was happening and I just kept praying that you would pull thru so that I could talk to you again, see you again soon. God had other plans for you. He knew you were tired and all that you had gone thru, it was time to take you away from all that.

You're now back with your beloved Bruce and all the family and friends that had gone before you. I pray that you are happy, healthy finally and enjoying what God has promised those that believe and try to live a life that He is first and foremost in.

We miss you not being here but please be at peace in the fact that Corinne and I will always look after each other, even tho we aren't near each other, we will look after each other.

I love you Mom, I know that you are and always will be a part of my life. I can't say good-bye I can only say that I hope and pray that *someday I will see you again. Until then, I will tell you one last time -

I love you, God bless you, Good nite*

“ Corinne and Eric, I'm so sorry for the loss of your precious mom! My loss as well! Monique and I have known each other for many years, but it was only in the last few years we really became friends! Real friends! When she first reached out to me I was surprised! I'm so glad she did! We have had many wonderful conversations and I already miss our phone calls! You guys are in my thoughts and prayers!

Corrine & Eric, I am so sorry for the sadness you're feeling right now. Monique was a dainty, petite lady with a zest for life. Her laugh was contagious. She will be missed by many; but now she's at rest with Jesus. Besides being with Jesus for eternity, she's one more reason to be sure to make heaven your eternal home as well. Much love & prayers. “ Mom, I never dreamed I would ever be writing this but here we are. I love YOU SO MUCH, ALWAYS HAVE, ALWAYS WILL! You have been my best friend, my adversary, my ally ALL AT ONCE! I don't know how to say goodbye to my Mom, my rock and my moudoutte...so I will give thanks to our Savior that you don't have to battle, fight or be so tired anymore. I MISS YOU SO VERY MUCH and my heart is broken. Stay by my side as you always have and I will be OK but I SURE MISS YOU! I LOVE YOU MOM!

Hi mom....I never called you by your name it has always been mom to me. You always made me feel comfortable when I was around you. Your heart is good along with a soul that sheds light and hope to all who you have come in contact with. Loved going shopping with you and Corinne, always looking for deals and sales. Miss going through your florida room straightening out all the robes and towels along with the nick-nacks and telling me where and how you got them. Miss your smile and laughter. I remember the first time I met you it was at El Torito's having lunch with you and Corinne. What an amazing good looking woman, strong and confident. You had a profound influence on Corinne as it should be. Corinne will miss you plenty but she will be fine. She is strong and she knows that you are not suffering anymore. You are free now to dance with your true love in heaven or wherever you choose to travel too. I am shocked and at a lose of words. This will hit me in a couple of days. Feel the same way I felt when my mom passed. I still have dreams of my mom. She was the glue that held the family together. My mom enjoyed your company also when she came over to your house or she came over to my mom's house. I have to stop now I am getting emotional and tears are flowing. Love you mom to the moon and back!!

To you my dear friend Corinne, You left a message on one of my posts for my mom saying how wonderful she must be because of how I am. Well I am coming to you full circle. What a wonderful person she was to have raised a wonderful person I know. Take each moment as a blessing and cry if you must it will release some pressure and please if a circumstance requires you to laugh, laugh it's okay and please Please my dear friend do one thing for me that's really important... Breathe, just breathe. ❤️ You are continually in my prayers.
