

Nigel Sherwin Aleong

February 2, 1974 - February 12, 2023

On February 12, 2023, Nigel Sherwin Aleong's journey on earth came to a close as he departed from this life to the next. He was born on February 2, 1974, bringing warmth and hope into the lives of his parents, Alloysius Aleong and Kathleen Prince, and many who knew him.

From a young age, Nigel's magnetic personality attracted many around him, making them laugh, cry, and applaud his stories. He was a force to be reckoned with.

After graduating from American Senior High School in Miami Gardens, Nigel joined the United States Marine Corps before attending the University of Miami. He was blessed with a son, the late Raja Aleong, and later fathered a daughter named Aisha with Sofia Araceli Leman in Mexico City, Mexico where he lived for 20 years—a country whose culture and language he always admired.

Nigel had a great sense of humor and could make those around him laugh until they cried. Nigel also took great pride in his appearance, and he loved to play the song "Free to do what I want any old time" by The Soup Dragons, inspiring others to live their lives to the fullest.

In his later years, Nigel found a church home in Miami, Florida.

Nigel was the oldest of three siblings. He leaves behind his 2 sisters, Natasha Aleong and Nicole Chin, and 1 Brother-in-law Christopher Chin.

He also had many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who loved him deeply. Nigel will be greatly missed and his memory will live on in the hearts of those who loved him.

“ I find myself thinking about our past celebrations in Brooklyn and remembering my dear cousin Nigel. One of my fondest memories of him is the friendly competition we had every year to see who was the best. Nigel and I would battle it out, year after year, always trying to outdo each other. Some years, he would win, and most years, I would win.

One Thanksgiving, while we were playing around, I accidentally hit him in the nose, causing it to bleed. He loved showing me what he had learned in karate school, and I loved demonstrating what I had learned from watching karate on TV. Despite the competitiveness, we always loved each other and looked forward to next year's competition

Nigel will be remembered as a loving son, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends, but his memory will live on in our hearts forever. We take comfort in knowing that Nigel is at peace now, and we will always cherish the memories we shared with him. May his soul rest in eternal peace.

With love and remembrance,
