

Noel Sylvester Seow

November 24, 1933 - December 9, 2016

Noel " Butch Seow, was born in Annotto Bay, Jamaica in 1933. He received a basic education and was known for his exceptional ability to repair cameras, televisions, radios, as well as his great photographic and culinary skills. His pork and mukney and pork and yam dishes were legendary.. He was a loyal friend and a proud father, especially when it came to his children's accomplishments. He delighted in his grandchildren, and was generous to them. He loved cultivating and sharing the ackees, mangos and avocados from the trees in his backyard.. He also enjoyed horse racing and repairing cameras.
