

Patrice Anthonett Liking

November 28, 1996 - April 3, 2026

Patrice Liking was born in Jamaica at Spanish Town Public Hospital to Nadia Falconer and Patrick Liking on November 28, 1996.

Patrice and her family migrated to Miami, Florida, in July 2010, where she started her education at Miami Carol City Middle School in the 7th grade. She received her high school diploma at Miami Carol City Senior High School, followed by attending Miami Dade College West Coast Nursing School. Patrice started her first job at McDonald's as a cashier and worked her way up to be a shift manager.

In January 2020, Patrice gave birth to a beautiful baby girl named Eliana. She brought so much joy to Patrice's life. She loved Eliana deeply. Later that year, she gave birth to a handsome baby boy, Ezra, in 2024.

Seven months later, she became ill, and she never fully recovered. April 3, 2026, Patrice was called home to God.

She leaves behind her mother Nedra, father Patrick, stepfather Marlon, and sisters Lecian, Sian, and Nia, her brother Dale, her grandparents, her daughter Eliana, and her son Ezra, along with a host of uncles, aunts, and cousins.

Rest in peace, Patrice. You will never be forgotten!!! You will truly be missed by everyone you came in contact with.
