“ Kim and family,
I apologize for this late entry. Janet Manso just posted the NABI reunion info and I saw her posting of your mom's (Pat) death which led me to the Obituary and memorial sight.
I am so saddened to hear Pat, your mom and friend has passed away. She was one of the most remarkable, organized, funnier than heck co-workers but most of all; one of the most beautiful woman inside and out.
I may have been 1000 miles away in Scranton, PA but I could depend on Pat whenever I needed something.
Over two years ago when I heard there may be a reunion one of my first thoughts was seeing your mom and Nancy.
Well I'll just have to wait until I meet her in Heaven. I'll keep you and your family in my thoughts and prayers. God Bless!

“ Pat and I worked closely together in the 1990s.

Pat had a great sense of humor, which made it a joy to work with her.
On several occasions, she showed that she genuinely cared about the people who worked for her. The group working for her was younger, and she couldn't turn off that maternal instinct.

I feel fortunate that I got to see her a few times recently in some group lunches.

I will never forget the sound of her laugh. Through that laugh, I always heard "Everything will be OK."

“ Pat was a ray of sunshine to all of us that worked with her throughout the years. I will always remember her laugh - it was so contagious and genuine.

Kim, my thoughts, tears and prayers are with you and with your family; Nancy, my deepest sympathy on the loss of your lifetime friend.

We all have fond memories that will remain with us - we all loved "BoomBoom".

With love, Ileana

“ Pat, you were like my 2nd mom growing up! When most teenagers were embarrassed to be seen with their parents, Kim & I were more than happy to jump in your VW beetle and be seen with you! You always had a smile to share and your spirit was contagious to those that were blessed enough to be in your company. The world lost a wonderful person but you will continue to live on in our hearts by the memories we have of you. The heavens just gained another great soul! You will be missed greatly. Love & Light, Jeanne!
