“ Paul and family, I enjoyed our time together as brothers and family members. Since I was in the military, I reflect on the times I spent with your kids, and up until the last days I spent time with you.

I look forward to the blessed promise when God speaks to all his sleeping saints. He will call them, and they will hear his voice, amen.

“ I remember my dad as the man that always came through the door as a child looking for me to run up to him and “plant him some sugar” on his cheek as he smiled glowingly. He loved me. He came to my aid whenever I was in trouble. He encouraged me to be reach unbelievable heights by simply showing me how I important I was to him.

I love you Dad!

“ My dad was a great father. He made sure we knew how to take care of ourselves and not ask anyone for anything. He loved us unconditionally. I don't know how my days will be without him, but what I do know is we lost a great soldier here on earth but GOD gained an angel in heaven!
