“ My condolences to Johnny and the rest of the family. I googled Willie, because he practically raised my siblings and I. My brother being the only boy and the youngest had fond memories of him (teaching him martial arts and many other fatherly things), and would always share stories. We discussed Willie once again on Christmas Eve, and I was hoping to touch base with him and share his contact info with my brother, instead I found this news which really hurts because we didn't get a chance to say goodbye.

Willie, you were a huge part of our lives, and we only have fond memories of you. Hope you are resting peacefully in heaven. Love, Ada & the kids 🙏

Thank you for posting this sis, the feeling is mutual. Yes, his name is still written out on our wall with an area he fixed once with cement, he wrote out his name.. Willy. When you shared with me the information of his passing, couldn't believe it, somehow I thought we would somehow meet up with him again. Wish I could have told him the impact he had on our lives til today. I will continue to work on my project of memorandum in photos and videos.. because the memories are just too many. May God have him resting in peace, because he's very deserving of it. God bless 🙏🕊️

“ I first met Willie when I worked security at Olympus condominiums in Hallandale and he was the valet at the 500 building. We became great friends and I enjoyed teaching him guitar. Willie and Heather, and Johnny painted my moms condo. Willie's love was his martial arts, and he loved life. I missed him all these years and now I know he's at peace in heaven with God 🙏

“ It is always difficult to see a good friend lose a loved one whom they cared for so much. John is that friend to me. I am sure William was a fine, outstanding individual just like his brother. He was certainly a fighter. He is now looking down upon his family and friends and passing his strength and love to them all. Prayers to all of you, and to you John.. stay strong my brother.
